A friend of mine at the law school needs 4 people from the Nicholas School to conduct a research project that explores the dynamics of international law negotiations. He needs 1 hour of your time (compensated by food and interesting information) sometime over the course of Sunday, the 22nd to Tuesday the 24th. Details to come... but in the meantime, e-mail me if you have an interest, and we can smooth out the details from there.

Please send me a quick e-mail at: jlm85@duke.edu. I hope to hear from you, ~Jmargo.
